Find the campus that fits you

Named in honor of our benefactor, the late investor and philanthropist Wm. Polk Carey, Arizona State University’s W. P. Carey School of Business is internationally recognized for its leadership in business education. The school is consistently ranked among the best business schools by U.S. News & World Report and other publications for its undergraduate, MBA, and online programs.

About ASU’s Tempe campus

Step into college at ASU’s Tempe campus where approximately one in four undergraduates pursue business degrees, and thousands more explore disciplines university-wide. This vibrant campus community in the heart of downtown Tempe features an expansive fitness complex, various performing art venues, and a convenient light rail line. Between cheering on Sun Devil Athletics teams and hiking up “A” Mountain, there’s plenty to see and do here.

As a W. P. Carey student, you can even take part in multidisciplinary research being conducted in our first-rate laboratories and facilities. The culture at ASU is truly innovative.

Nearly 20% of the close to 5,000 undergraduates on ASU’s West campus are W. P. Carey School of Business students. Blending liberal arts education with 21st-century workforce preparation, West provides a tight-knit learning environment with modern amenities in its classrooms, residence halls, dining facilities, and Sun Devil Fitness Complex.

With Fletcher Lawn at its center, the courtyard-fashioned campus features Oxford-inspired architecture, Albert Paley-designed entry gates, and extensive public art. Subtropical landscaping, fountains, and outdoor enclaves provide additional venues for students to socialize or collaborate beyond the classroom.
