The W. P. Carey School of Business at ASU’s Polytechnic campus

Named in honor of our benefactor, the late investor and philanthropist Wm. Polk Carey, Arizona State University’s W. P. Carey School of Business is internationally recognized for its leadership in business education. The school is consistently ranked among the best business schools by U.S. News & World Report and other publications for its undergraduate, MBA, and online programs.

About ASU’s Polytechnic campus
Located in the heart of the dynamic East Valley, ASU’s Polytechnic campus features more than 50 sustainable buildings and thousands of square feet of lab space, spread across 600 acres. The Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport borders the campus on the east, along with Chandler-Gilbert Community College. SanTan Village, a dynamic shopping and dining complex, is just minutes away from campus.

It’s a beautiful campus that offers you a hands-on learning environment and small-college atmosphere. With a new residential community, Sun Devil Fitness Complex, dining hall, and student services that include advising and career support, W. P. Carey students have all the resources for success at ASU’s Polytechnic campus.
