Your Sun Devil fight song — show your ASU pride!

Fight, Devils down the field
Fight with your might and don’t ever yield
Long may our colors outshine all others
Echo from the buttes, give ’em hell Devils!
Cheer, cheer for A-S-U
Fight for the old maroon
For it’s hail, hail, the gang’s all here
And it’s onward to victory!

Welcome to the W. P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University.

Congratulations on your admission to ASU’s W. P. Carey School of Business. You have joined one of the nation’s best business schools, and today become part of our tight-knit community of business students, faculty, alumni, and staff. Orientation will introduce you to many outstanding people, resources, and services — all dedicated to your success.

Welcome to the W. P. Carey family, and best wishes for your future!

Where business is personal.

At the W. P. Carey School of Business, we’re committed to making ASU feel connected and personal. There are many people within W. P. Carey who support you during your experience here.

Peer advisors (pictured) are current students who guide you in the process of selecting your first semester classes.

Academic advisors assist you with major exploration, class selection, and scheduling.

Career coaches provide guidance, resources, support, and encouragement to help you achieve your professional goals.

Engagement coordinators provide opportunities for you to build connections and gain leadership skills outside of the classroom.

Navigators are involved student leaders who can answer your questions about becoming a successful W. P. Carey student.
First-year W. P. Carey students take business classes from day one, starting with the skill courses at the heart of every W. P. Carey degree. All first-year W. P. Carey students are required to enroll in specific academic courses.

First semester courses
In your first semester as a business student, you are required to enroll in WPC 101, WPC 148, CIS 105, a math course, and an English course.

WPC 101: Student Success in Business
Held once each week, WPC 101 helps you to successfully transition from high school to college life, introducing you to the many resources and leadership opportunities available to you from W. P. Carey and ASU.

WPC 148: Freshman Career Preparation
Building career skills, interests, and strengths as a college student.

CIS 105: Computer Applications and Information Technology
This is your first business skills course. CIS 105 introduces you to information systems and business application software, emphasizing the database and spreadsheet packages you’ll likely use throughout your career.

Math
The math sequence is determined by your math placement test score. Students must complete the MAT sequence with a grade of “C” or higher by the end of the third term.

- MAT 270 and MAT 271, Calculus with Analytic Geometry I and II, can be taken instead of MAT 210 and MAT 211
- MAT 270/271 are strongly encouraged for students pursuing the economics degree.
- MAT 210, Brief Calculus, must be completed by the end of the third term

English
The English sequence is determined by ACT English, SAT Evidence-Based Reading and Writing (ERW) — or SAT Critical Reading (test dates prior to March 2016 only) — TOEFL, or ACCUPLACER scores. Students must complete the English requirement with a grade of “C” or higher by the end of the third term.

Students for whom English is a non-native language may test into WAC 107 or ENG 107.

*ENG 105 meets the same critical track requirements as the ENG 101 and ENG 102 sequence.

Dual enrollment, AP, or IB credit
If you earned credit from Advanced Placement, IB, and/or dual enrollment courses, you may be eligible to enroll in different English or math courses than those indicated by your test scores. Please speak with one of our advisors to determine your qualifications and which courses are best for you.
Your well-rounded academic experience.

Communication, psychology, and sociology

All business students take courses in these areas to gain insight into human behavior, within societies and as individuals. Studying interpersonal communication theories and methods will be helpful in your career as a business professional.

COM 100: Introduction to Human Communication
Discover basic theories, dimensions, and concepts of human communicative interaction and behavior.

COM 230: Small Group Communication
Learn principles and processes of communication for effective participation, leadership, problem solving, and decision-making in small groups.

PSY 101: Introduction to Psychology
Explore major areas of theory and research in psychology to gain insight into human behavior.

SOC 101: Introductory Sociology
Understand fundamentals of sociology, organization of human groups and society, processes of interaction, and social change.

Course requirements may vary by major.

Business communication students are required to complete COM 100 or COM 230 by the end of the third term.

Accountancy students must take two communication courses to fulfill degree requirements: COM 100 or COM 230, and COM 225 or COM 259. COM 225 and COM 259 have prerequisites — see an advisor if interested.

Chinese language and culture students and Spanish language and culture students have different requirements than those shown here. Speak with your academic advisor to learn more.

General studies courses

ASU’s general studies requirements complement your W. P. Carey business degree with critical learning skills, which you’ll develop by investigating some of the traditional branches of knowledge. You will take at least two courses in the humanities, arts, and design, as well as two natural sciences courses, and fulfill cultural diversity, global, and historical awareness requirements.

General studies requirements

Humanities, arts, and design
Two classes that fulfill awareness in:
- Cultural Diversity in the United States (C)
- Global Awareness (G)
- Historical Awareness (H)

Natural sciences
Two natural sciences courses and the associated labs, one in each of the following areas:
- Science General (SG)
- Science Quantitative (SQ)
Your path to success.
